

Dr. Stefan Bergheim
Raimundstr. 121
D-60320 Frankfurt stefan.bergheim@nexgo.de

Curriculum Vitae

Professional Experience:

- 07/02 to present Senior Economist in Macro Trends, Deutsche Bank Research, Frankfurt. Global business cycle analysis and trend research. Focus on Japan, Spain, happiness, financial markets, growth, human capital.
- 06/01 to 05/02 Senior Economist for the Euro area, JPMorgan, Frankfurt
- 12/97 to 03/01 Senior Economist and Deputy Chief Economist for Germany and the Euro area, Merrill Lynch, Frankfurt. Business cycle analysis, ECB watching, structural reforms
- 09/95 to 11/97 Fixed Income Analyst and later German Economist, Dresdner Kleinwort Benson, Frankfurt. Business cycle analysis and Bundesbank watching.
- 06/94 to 08/94 Internship Fixed Income Research at Deutsche Bank Research, Frankfurt.
- 12/92 to 07/95 Teaching Assistant, Economics Department, University of Oregon, USA. Taught classes in Introductory Macroeconomics and International Economics.

Education:

- 09/05 to 11/07 Doctoral studies in Economics at the WHU, Germany. Dissertation "Long-run Growth Forecasting" summa cum laude, published Springer, 2008.
- 09/92 to 07/95 Ph.D. studies in Economics at the University of Oregon, USA. Field paper: "The transatlantic transmission of macroeconomic shocks" used Bayesian VAR analysis.
- 10/87 to 05/92 Study of Economics at the University of the Saarland, Germany. Diploma in May 1992. Diplom thesis on Transnational Firms
- 09/86 to 12/87 Military Service
- 06/86 High School Diploma

Further training and inspiration:

- 08/2004 Summer School Macroeconomics with courses by Giancarlo Corsetti, Steven Durlauf and Mark Taylor at the Centre for Financial Studies
- 09/2003 Seminar "Klar-Text" by Prof. Dieter Herbst at Deutsche Bank
- 03/2003 Course "Globalisation, growth and development" by David Audretsch at the Kiel Institute